They Could Use Some Help

OBJECTIVE of these members of the Citizens Committee For Needed Schools is graphically apparent as Jefferson Elementary district awaits its crucial March 18 bond-state aid election. "Yes" response by voters will allow the district to sell $1.3 million in bonds and entitle it to $7 million in state funds to cover site and building needs. Mrs. J. D. CIVIC CENTER, RESERVOIR

DeBernardi 'Downed' Twice By Council Mates

Micheal DeBernardi was nixed by fellow councilmen in two motions Monday night—one on hiring for $250 an appraiser to expedite the quest for a civic center site and the second for a verdict on the quake-damaged Westlake reservoir.

DeBernardi opposed the Citizens' Steering Committee bid for an outside appraiser to look over "two or three" undisclosed sites under study by chairman Tony Masini's group. DeBernardi, suggesting that Councilman Del Wilson, an appraiser, do the work himself at no cost to the city, said the $250 outlay "would be an extra expense."

"We've already allocated $1500 to the citizens' committee," said DeBernardi. "Why tack on more funds?"

City Manager Howard Stites explained that the appraiser would be instructed to draw up merely a preliminary report on the sites, then the city and committee would single out the one most feasible. Masini urged the council to make a move for acquiring the land "within the next six to eight weeks."

Councilmen Sanford Vickers and Francis Pacelli agreed with Mayor Joseph Verducci that "everything should be done to speed the work of the citizens' committee." Wilson said he wasn't opposed to hiring an appraiser, but preferred that he be local.

DeBernardi's next rebuff came when he failed to muster a second to his motion for hiring a consultant engineer to draw up plans for reconstruction of the Westlake reservoir.

He made the motion after City Engineer Otis Calhoun advised the council that partitioning the plant would involve "an unjustified expense" and "it would be more practical to install an additional wooden tank for emergencies next to the damaged reservoir."

Calhoun said his talks with East Bay Municipal District officials convinced him that it would cost the city about $18,000 to partition the reservoir and bring it up to par. He said this sum would be just $4000 less than the cost of a steel tank and $10,000 more than the present reservoir.

Vickers challenged DeBernardi's proposal to hire a consultant.

"You just got through opposing $250 for the citizens' committee," said Vickers, "and now you want to spend a lot of money on the reservoir."

"Listen, we've got a $150,000 investment and public safety to consider on that hill (reservoir)," retorted DeBernardi.

Stymied on the reservoir proposal, DeBernardi did get a second to his motion for adjournment.

POLICE CHIEFS URGE BOCCI TO STAY IN COURT

Despite a petition from four local police chiefs urging him to stay on the job as muni court judge, Thomas L. Bocci Jr. today again hinted he would leave the bench in South San Francisco to run for district attorney.

The Colma jurist's press release said that he had received a petition signed by police chiefs Roland Petrocchi, Daly City; Ray Savage, Broadmoor; Al Lagomarsino, Colma, and Louis A. Bellomi, South San Francisco. The petition urged him to remain on for another term instead of resigning as muni judge this June.

Bocci replied:

"I fully appreciate the confidence in me expressed by each of the chiefs of police and have assured them I will give serious thought to it. However, my present inclination is not to

CHALLENGE 'DISMISSAL'

Seek Trustees' Okay For Board Of Review

Challenged members of Jefferson Elementary school board on March 5 will decide whether they will heed a petition which asks them to authorize "a professional board of review" to investigate their dismissal of Supt. Henry Z. Weibel.

The long-rumored petition move was made public and revealed to trustees at last Wednesday night's regular meeting by insurance man Martin Orloff, of Broadmoor, spokesman for the so-called "parents' group," which seeks to keep Weibel on the job.

Although board chairman Hartley Appleton answered Orloff's announcement with a concluding statement that the board would "consider" the petitions, there was no indication by the four trustees present that they would officially grant the request. The decision rests solely in the board's hands—legally—at the March 5 meeting.

Lewkowitz Absent

Trustee Joseph Lewkowitz, on record as the only pro-Weibel member of the board—though he participated in the unanimous board decision to terminate the superintendent's duty here in June next year—was conspicuously absent from last week's meeting. Lewkowitz, a candidate for the city council, was attending a meeting of the North End Demo Club in Westlake, which featured a film on schools in Russia. During the club meeting Lewkowitz was reported to have submitted a letter—which was read by the club chairman—from Weibel to him (Lewkowitz) in answer to the school trustee's request that the superintendent give him in writing a recommendation and comment on Lewkowitz' duty as a trustee. Lewkowitz allegedly sought the "endorsement" to aid his political chances.

Lewkowitz told the newspaper that he had asked Weibel

Ciampi Says New Vista Mar Plant Ready By June

Architect Mario Ciampi last week told trustees that the beyond-deadline completion of $481,000 Vista Mar elementary school in Westlake "probably can't be expected until the latter part of May or early June."

The circular school on Southgate had a delivery date of February 15 (two weeks ago) by Hart and Hynding contractors. But earlier this month, Hart implied that a delay of more than four months appears inevitable.

3 ENTER RACE FOR BOCCI JOB ON MUNI BENCH

Three candidates have declared themselves for the June primary election which will determine Judge Thomas Bocci's successor on the Northern Judicial District bench in South San Francisco.

In the race are attorneys Charles Becker of Westlake, and Thomas Needham and Conrad Reisch, both of SSF.

SPEEDS COMMITTEE

DC Fights Freeway

The city council Monday night set its wheels in motion for a united "fight the freeway" campaign, appointing Councilman Francis Pacelli of Westlake to organize and be chairman of a community-wide steering committee.

Vociferously repeating the city's stand against the state's suggested city-splitting routes, Mayor Joseph Verducci said "it will take a concerted effort by all elements of the community to keep the freeway out."

"We actively object to an east-west freeway cutting through Westlake on Alemany," proclaimed Verducci. "However, we don't object to the north-south alternate route suggested by the state, provided it causes the least disruption to our city."

The mayor reminded that the north-south route from San Francisco to the Coastside appears inevitable. But he and the council believe that if enough pressure against a freeway invading Daly City were applied, the state would construct the route outside city limits.

Earlier this month the council proposed that the north-south route run along Stanley drive in San Francisco, thence

EMERGENCY LEGISLATION

High School Officials Ask Governor's Help

Alarmed over the critical shortage of state funds for site acquisition and buildings, the high school board Monday night moved to ask Gov. Goodwin Knight to call a special session of the state legislature and for solons to immediately appropriate some $30 million from the current budget to cut down the crisis.

In prompting trustees to action, Supt. Ed Morgan cited an urgent letter from the California Association of State School Administrators. The message pointed out that funds made available by the $100 million state building aid program bond issue in 1956 will be exhausted this December.

Programs Halted

Morgan declared that allocations of funds to school districts under the priority system now in effect, "have slowed down and stopped the building programs of a number of school districts."

The district's appeal to the governor and state representatives asks for a special session of the legislature to have a new bond issue placed on the November ballot, and immediate transfer of $30 million to "hold the fort" during this interval.

Morgan warned that if a special session is not called to run concurrently with the budget session or immediately following it, "this matter could not be acted on by the legislature until the regular session in 1959, voted on in November next year, and the money would not be available until 1960."

14,510 ELIGIBLE TO VOTE IN DC COUNCIL RACE

More than one-third of Daly City's 36,000 residents will be eligible to vote in the April 8 city council election, according to final registration statistics announced today by City Clerk Evelyn Mosman.

A total of 14,510 citizens are registered to vote, representing on increase of 4010 over the 10,500 eligibles two years ago.

The 11-man field of candidates and the hot issues preview a record turnout on balloting day.

Fifty-five percent of those registered in 1956 invaded the poll booths. Estimates this time predict as high as 60 per cent participation.

Council Okays City Treasurer Pay 'Settlement'

The city council took the first official step to resolve its long-standing feud with City Treasurer Paul Selmi on Monday night by ruling to pay him $1304.73 in "back pay."

Whether Selmi will accept the council verdict was not known at press time. He has been at loggerheads with the city, claiming he is entitled to some eight months full pay last year, during which time the council ruled him officially "absent" from his one-man post.

On advice of City Attorney Paul Hupf, the council held that Selmi be paid the lump sum difference between the $400 per month salary budgeted for his job and the salary paid a deputy Selmi hired as his "replacement" during his controversial absence.

Selmi's case started in March when he was granted two-weeks regular paid vacation, followed by an emergency 30-day non-pay leave due to the illness and subsequent death of his son.

According to the council, Selmi subsequently did not "officially" return to his office duties until October 31 last year, thus he wasn't entitled to any legal compensation for the period of absence.

Selmi contended he should get his regular salary just the same, stating that he was in "constant contact" with his office's operation through the deputy. The deputy was dismissed on October 31 and Selmi's pay was resumed.

Hupf informed the council it was his legal opinion that Selmi was not entitled to the full monthly salary during the absence. He added, "while it is not a good policy for a city

Housewife Faces Bocci March 13 In 'Bookie' Case

Preliminary hearing on the bookmaking charge against Mrs. Evelyn Carroll, 32, of 32 Crestwood drive, has been set for March 13 in municipal court.

The Westlake woman, suspected of operating a small-scale horse race betting system in her apartment, was arraigned last Thursday before Judge Thomas Bocci.

Mrs. Carroll was arrested February 12 by Daly City police after they had checked her "maneuvers" in an investigation that began early this month. They claim most of the alleged telephone calls on bets were made between 10 a.m. and noon.

The housewife and her husband are unemployed. They have a 6-year-old child who attends a San Francisco school.

EMPLOYEES GET CLARIFICATION ON PAY STEPS

A city council resolution Monday eased doubts of municipal employees on advancement specifications in the city's three-step pay policy.

Consistent with last year's 5 per cent pay hike to city workers, the new act requires new employees to be on the job for one year before first increase in salary is authorized.

The pay raise move in February last year did not list the altered salary rates in the many municipal categories. Under Monday's edict, individuals on the former six-month advancement policy will have their pay adjusted accordingly.

The city junked its five-step salary schedule two years ago because of difficulty in recruiting workers under the then broad scale. The earlier policy allowed advancement to top scale after 1½ years on the job.

TOWN of Colma's first woman council candidate, Mrs. Rena Vallerga, sizes up the two incumbents she will face at the polls April 8. At left is veteran councilman Ray Ottoboni. The other office holder seeking re-election to a four-year term is Andrew Rovegno. Only two vacancies exist.

City Orders Crackdown On Illegal 'Shooters'

Councilmen Monday night said police would enforce a strong policy to prosecute individuals who illegally discharge firearms or explosives in violation of city ordinance.

Paul Hupf, city attorney, hinted that the many violators to date have been let off relatively easy. Maximum penalty could be a fine of $300, three months in county jail or both, he asserted.

Mayor Joseph Verducci and councilmen agreed that the "public hazard" incidents have been on the upswing.

"Perhaps it's because most people don't know that it's illegal to fire weapons within our city," declared the mayor.

Councilman Sanford Vickers suggested the city needs a public shooting range to cut down illegal practice in residential areas.

In agreement was City Manager Howard Stites, who said such a range would necessitate supervision at all times.

Latest violator was Walt Nordenstaut, 3640 Pierce street, San Francisco. He and two companions were picked up by Officer Steve Steen Saturday afternoon off Coast highway below Skyline. Only Nordenstaut was held because he was firing a .22 revolver "for practice."

Most of the trouble, according to the council, is in this same area, running from Coast highway at Westlake to the city limits near Pacifica.

JESD 'SPARES' SCHENONES IN SCHOOL QUEST

Trustees hurdled another roadblock Wednesday night by approving an adjusted site utilization plan for the M. Pauline Brown K-6 school—a move that spared the one-acre Schenone family nursery from oblivion.

The elementary board agreed to move west off the Schenone parcel and settle for 8.6 level acres and a total site of 13.6 acres.

Exclusion of the Schenone strip, a wrangling issue that carried as far as Sacramento, found trustees picking up the acreage from St. Francis subdivision builder, Chris McKeon, who is selling 11 acres for the Brown site to the district.

RICHARD DWYER NAMED TO CITY PLAN COMMISSION

Richard Dwyer of Westlake Monday was appointed to the city planning commission, replacing veteran Edward A. Lopez who resigned.

Dwyer, 36, of 73 Dorchester drive, is a native of San Francisco and has been active in civic projects here. A graduate of USF, he is a member of Our Lady of Mercy parish and works as a public accountant.

Dwyer and his wife, Dorothy, are parents of two boys and two girls, ranging in age from 8 to 2.

Councilman Francis Pacelli made the nomination which passed unanimously.

Cops Query Canine Keeper

DOGGISH state of affairs at the Bellevue avenue home of Mrs. Juanita Romero (above) was eliminated by the little lady this week—much to the relief of Daly City police. The canine-lover, under fire from the health department, city poundmaster and merchants who claim she owes them much money, plans to move back to San Francisco. Housekeeper for two other elderly ladies, Mrs. Romero had 15 unlicensed hounds on the premises when this photo was taken.

Ask Professionals To Probe 'Firing'

for the letter after—but not as a result of—the board announcing its "firing" the superintendent at its January 29 meeting. The council candidate, who at the first February meeting of the board said he was against terminating Weibel's contract, claims the letter from the superintendent "had nothing to do with the school board situation."

No Agitation

Orloff, in an orderly manner, read the full text of the petition to trustees Wednesday night, adding to it the comment that the move "is not the work of an agitation group."

"If you (the board) act in good faith," said Orloff, "then we feel that Mr. Weibel or any other superintendent is entitled to a hearing by a professional board of review."

The petitioners, number of whom have responded was not known at press time, stated their appeal in the following text, quoted in part:

". . . request the school board to reconsider its decision to terminate the contract of Supt. H. Z. Weibel.

"We are satisfied with the progress that has been made under Mr. Weibel's administration, recognizing that he has been faced with many major problems inherent in the rapid growth of our district. We believe that he has done all that could be reasonably expected of any man in like position operating under the same conditions.

"The board of trustees," the petition continued, "elected by the people, and reflecting the opinion and wishes of the electorate, has in this instance, we believe, misjudged or ignored the feeling and temper of its constituency.

Consultation?

"Individually and as groups, citizens, parents, patrons, teachers, administrators, and other interested parties were neither consulted nor considered in this very important decision to oust our superintendent.

"We hope this autocratic precedent will not become a standing operating procedure of our school board," the petition ended.

Appleton calmly reaffirmed the "stand" made by trustees in the dismissal, requested by Orloff after the latter read the petition in full.

The chairman repeated that the decision to terminate Weibel's contract was the sole responsibility of the board, nixing earlier allegations that the firing was by recommendation of a Stanford university research group. The latter agency, called in by the board last year to gauge the district's policy and recommend procedures for board consideration, denies that it was a "catalyst" in the superintendent's dismissal.

Lewkowitz Statement

Asked by Orloff to confirm that Lewkowitz at the February 5 board meeting stated he was against the dismissal of the superintendent, Appleton firmly replied:

"Lewkowitz voted with the board in the unanimous motion to dismiss the superintendent. He did not change his vote at the last meeting."

And Appleton added, "We (the board) acted after careful consideration, and we want to be fair. We extended Mr. Weibel's contract for one year with the understanding (as agreed upon with in closed session last December) that he would not be re-hired after June of 1959."

"We have an elected duty to perform, and so do you (the people)," Appleton told Orloff. "We will consider the petitions at our next meeting."

Meanwhile, at last Wednesday's board meeting, trustees each were presented unsigned letters reportedly from the Jefferson Classified Employees Association, asking them to reconsider the superintendent's situation.

The letters stated that "it was the unanimous opinion of the classified association in a special meeting that removal of the superintendent would constitute a serious loss to the district."

They added, "We are entirely satisfied with Mr. Weibel's performances here—past and present."

Appleton, reading the unsigned message to the full-audience, tossed his copy to Weibel, remarking, "File these among your memoirs."

Board Authorization

According to Dr. Byron Curry, county superintendent of school's office, professional review boards in cases of this type are authorized by school boards on an invitation basis.

Make-up of review boards must be entirely professional and include a representative of the county schools' office. Orloff suggested that such institutions as Stanford, University of California and San Francisco State College be considered if the school board authorizes a board of review.

Reaction of teachers here in the superintendent's dismissal was not immediately definable. The teachers' association met last week in special session, presumably to take a stand. A "pro" or "con" attitude was not announced.

A spokesman for the parents' petitioners said the group wants "more specific reasons why the dismissal action was taken," and "wonders why the superintendent's salary was raised last year "if trustees were not satisfied or lacked confidence in Mr. Weibel."

The spokesman also noted that Weibel "shouldered the heavy administrative load" before the two assistant superintendents were hired. Both chief administrative aides, Dr. David Shapiro and Dr. Vinton Stratton, are under contract for $14,000 a year. Weibel's salary is $14,500 per annum, the spokesman reminded.

The superintendent, 53, a veteran of 29 years in education, confirmed that he is not interested in trying to keep his job here "in view of the controversy and its detrimental effect on the school system."

His contract was to expire this June, but the one-year extension by trustees, they feel, allows him "adequate time to find a new job."

Youth, 14, Fails In Attempted Theft Of Cop's Vehicle

A 14-year-old San Francisco youth was arrested for auto theft here at 1 a.m. Sunday after he tried to speed off in a '39 sedan owned by Broadmoor Police Officer Ron Sinclair.

A neighbor phoned Officer George Carlton about 12:05 a.m. when he saw Sinclair's family vehicle moving down the street. Carlton nabbed the youth attempting to re-start the motor a block away.

W-Wilson Founder's Day Has All The 'Ingredients'

With the fifth grade students of Miss Olsen's class "baking" a big blue and gold cake on stage, Woodrow Wilson PTA celebrated Founder's Day Tuesday night, last week. Cause to celebrate was two-fold since Woodrow Wilson PTA is 35 years old this year.

The unit had a major part in writing early history of the 17th District CCPT. It was one of the original 24 units in 1927. Thirty-one years later the number has grown to 126 Parent-Teacher Associations.

Special guests from the administration office of Jefferson Elementary School district were Dr. Vinton Stratton, Dr. R. Harkness and trustees Mrs. Doris Wimberly and Joseph Lewkowitz. Also in attendance was Mrs. B. Greenameyer, president of Jefferson Union High School PTA. Mrs. Wimberly spoke briefly on the coming elementary school bond election—March 18—and urged a "yes" vote. Mrs. Ethel B. Hahn, principal of Woodrow Wilson school introduced her faculty.

Co-Chairmen

The Founder's Day program was planned under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mendel Plansky and Mrs. Anthony Giammona. Guests received unique corsages made of gold pipe cleaner stems and PTA seal "flowers." One of the high spots of the evening was the playlet, "The Birthday Cake." Centered on stage was a huge "mixing bowl." One student "baker" stirred the batter as his classmates, representing the ingredients, touched the bowl in passing. Ingredients were: cooperation, education, service, work, friendliness, useful projects, enthusiasm, community fun, interesting programs, knowledge, beauty, kindliness and hospitality. When the baker removed the mixing bowl, there was the beautiful Founder's Day cake—soon ablaze with candles.

Life Awards

Mrs. Arthur Waldvogel, past honorary life member of the Woodrow Wilson PTA and this year's committee chairman for the selection of new life members, was introduced. Mrs. Waldvogel named Mrs. Virginia Bolsted and Mrs. Ada Reynolds to receive honorary life memberships in recognition of their efforts i n PTA work. Mrs. Bolsted is a first grade teacher who is always friendly, cooperative and helpful. Mrs. Reynolds, custodian, is a great friend to children, teachers and the PTA. She is always "johnny-on-the-spot" when needed for PTA work.

Other honorary life members introduced were Mrs. L. Thomey, Mrs. F. Rickmann, Mrs. H. Heagney, Mrs. A. Cheatham, Mrs. R. Williams, Mrs. E. Hahn, Mrs. M. Plansky, Mrs. M. Sorenson, Mrs. N. Eddy and Mrs. J. Watson.

Mrs. Mendel Plansky spoke on the significance of Founder's Day and the PTA symbol, the oak tree. She then introduced the past presidents in attendance, Mesdames Rickmann, Thomey, Sorensen, Cheatham, Wililams, Plansky and Spittler.

It was announced that Miss Olsen's class won the PTA honor class pennant for attendance. Next meeting and election of a new slate of officers will be held March 18.

Yet to ask for an official extension, the builders through Ciampi have attributed their behind-schedule status to recent steel and concrete workers' strikes, and rain.

Appleton, who queried Ciampi on Vista Mar after reading a strong letter from Charles Knedel, 698 Southgate, on the "lack of prosecution" for contractors who get behind schedule, asked the architect if "rain is a legitimate reason for the delay."

Ciampi replied he was "in no position to answer, and I'm speaking only as an agent for the district, interested as well as you are, in completion of the plant."

Appleton repeated his criticism of the contractor, saying: "We gave them a full-year contract after they said they could finish the school in nine months. Now they want four extra months, making it almost double the promised period."

Ciampi was instructed to immediately sound out the contractor for a full explanation and report for the board. Meanwhile, 552 children who would attend Vista Mar, remain on double sessions.

Ciampi informed that classrooms should be ready this week at the new Vista Grande primary school, off Thiers and Wyandotte streets. Deadline on this contract was last month, and even should the 200 Vista Grande pupils (also on double sessions) move in this week, the plant is far from finished as a unit.

Hub Pacific, the Vista Grande contractor, has offered no recent report on the delay.

JAIL ACCOUNTANT IN $6800 FRAUD AT CALLAN FIRM

A 37-year-old former accountant for Michael Callan Construction company is in the county jail today, charged with embezzlement of $6800 from the Daly City firm over an eight-month span last year.

Arraigned Tuesday in municipal court by Judge Thomas Bocci was William H. Little, returned by county sheriff's deputies from his residence in Tahoe Valley, El Dorado county. Preliminary hearing is set next Tuesday in Redwood City superior court.

Litlte reportedly admitted inking the Callan signature to checks, ranging from $100 to $600, from April to his December lay-off in 1957.

The accountant's bail w a s fixed at $2000 cash.

JESD 'Spares' Schenones In School Quest

Trustee Michael Callan, developing homes in the same area, will donate the remaining acreage for the school.

The adjusted M. Pauline Brown site plan has been forwarded for final state approval. Hearing and action by the State Allocations Board on the $267,000 loan for purchase of the land and the school is set for next week in Sacramento.

The school board last week also moved forward its quest for the new Gen. Pershing site, long-hindered by opposition of San Francisco school and political leaders.

The board, willing to settle for six level acres by using retaining walls to cut the slopes, has written offers from seven San Francisco homeowners in the "critical" area, specifying the price each wants for selling to the district. These letters of willingness to sell include statements urging San Francisco officials "not to interfere." Coming forth with offers are residents in the area between Hanover and Brunswick streets and Lowell and Whittier.

Final decision by the city on abandonment of Hanover street in connection with the Pershing site also is awaited by the district.

Trustees in their last meeting passed a resolution to allow the district to enter into the 25-year, renewable, joint-use agreement with the city on Westlake park, subject to approval of state school planning.

The district cut down its site needs in the basin property and another stormy issue by taking the economical joint-use step on the park land.

The board also has asked builder Henry Doelger to transfer title of the school-bound basin acreage.

to the coast, thus avoiding Daly City.

Pacelli, who attended Tuesday's meeting of mayors in South San Francisco in talks with state highway officials, expects to set a kick-off meeting date for the freeway committee within a week.

The council authorized letters to the following groups, inviting them to send representatives for committee membership:

Westlake Improvement Association, Garden Village Club, Broadmoor Property Owners, Callan Builders, motel owners, Lake Merced Improvement Club, Henry Doelger, Zita Corporation, King's Market, Westlake Merchants, a n d high school and elementary district officials. State assemblymen also will be asked to assert their influence against freeways here.

Aiding Pacelli in the committee direction will be Councilmen Micheal DeBernardi and Sanford Vickers, City Manager Howard Stites and City Engineer Otis Calhoun.

THE VOICE OF THE CROWD?

Monday's city council meeting was a sorry contrast—audience-wise—to the February 10 session when the chamber was jammed to protest the split-decision which slaps citizens with sales tax in two weeks.

No more than 10 persons were on hand for this week's relatively quiet council conclave.

Granted, Monday night's turnout was paltry due to stormy weather and the fact the anti-tax petitioners (who number in the thousands) weren't quite ready to present their package protest to the five-man city governing board and its manager, Howard Stites.

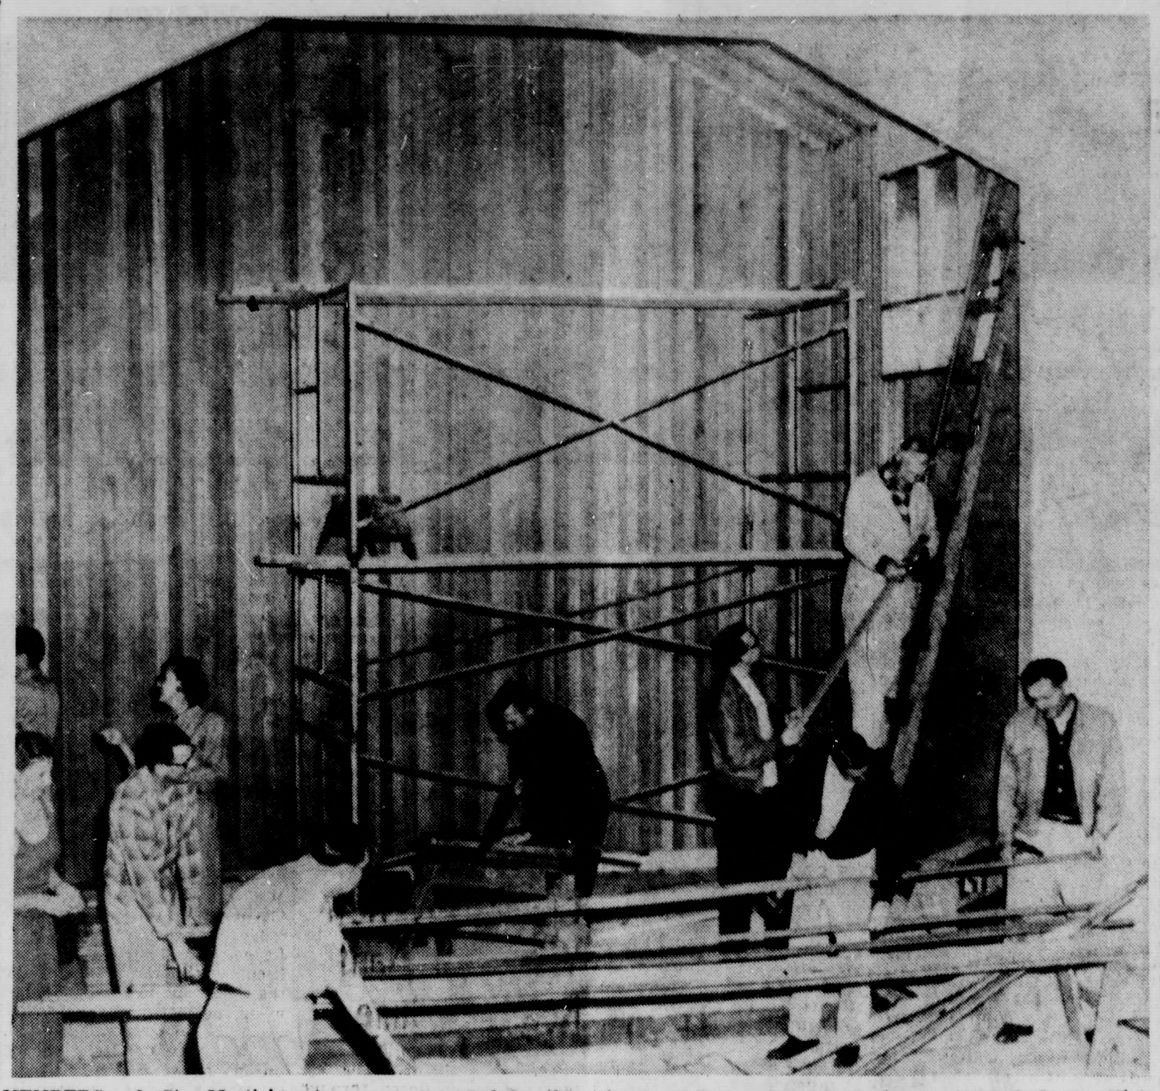
But in view of the immediacy needed to combat the tax—before it's too late—and its significance in the current political race, we were indeed disappointed by the absence of another full-house Monday night.

Out of sight, out of mind is a bromide worth remembering. When the voters fail to keep a constant watch on goings-on at city hall and verbal duels at council sessions, their avenue to a voice in government easily can be detoured.

Only by complete attentiveness and attendance at the major city meetings will citizens make their collective feelings known on every issue.

Why only a handful of the public take the time and interest to regularly appear in person merits serious consideration.

The stay-at-homes would do well to digest this food for thought.



MEMBERS of St. Martin's Episcopal congregation and the Rev. Allen Downey are devoting long hours to help complete their new church on Southgate avenue across from the also-being-built Vista Mar school. They hope to be able to open services on Easter. Laboring inside the upstairs chapel (above) are Reverend Downey, Warren Pollock (church building advisor), Jack Sprague, Hubert Arthur, John Snyder, Frank Specht, Al Herman (foreman), and Lanier Hickman. Ladies are Mrs. Donald Piercy and Mrs. J. T. Stansfield. THE RECORD photo

BANK OF AMERICA

4 Jeff High Seniors Get Achievement Award

A faculty committee has named four seniors as winners in the 1958 Bank of America Achievement Award program at Daly City's Jefferson High School.

Principal John P. Mongan, announcing the winners today, said the program calls for further area-wide evaluation which could result in individual prizes as much as $1000 this spring.

Superior records throughout their high school careers determined the selections, with major emphasis on scholarship, extra-curricular endeavor and prospects for future contributions to mankind.

Engraved trophy plaques were won by the following Jeff students who "demonstrated excellence" in a major field of study:

Gladys Grassini, math and science; Delia Patron, fine arts; Cecile Champagne, liberal arts, and Delores Lara, vocational arts.

In addition, certificates of merit went to the following 10 seniors judged outstanding in a specific study subject: Ed Davis, math; Gladys Grassini, science; Jo Ann Bhend, music; Delia Patron, art; Gail Duncan, English; Vickie Tomasi, social science; Cecile Champagne, foreign language; Delores Lara, business; Wardene Riley, home economics, and Everett Jameson, trades and industrial arts.

Plaque winners will go through an additional screening to determine who will advance to zonal competition April 24 at Redwood City.

First place winners in each of the four major fields—fine arts, liberal arts, vocational arts and science-mathematics—will qualify automatically for one of two Northern California finals. They are assured of at least $100 and may receive as much as $1000. Winners of second and third places at the zone events in each of the four fields will receive $50 and $25 respectively.

Finals will be held next May; at San Francisco for the Bay Area counties and at Sacramento for all other Northern California counties south to and including Kern. Similar competitions are conducted in Southern California.

Nearly 6000 awards are made in the program, including trophy plaques, ribbons, certificates and individual cash prizes totaling $54,900. The purpose is to stimulate scholastic and civic endeavor among high school students. Nearly 600 public, private and parochial schools in the state participate.

The Town Record

By Roy Hurlbert

Seems a shame the county shuns unincorporated Broadmoor, continually plagued by the erosion scare in bad weather.

Folks along Nimitz drive are in the worst predicament for slides. But the county hasn't offered much more than a look-see at the situation.

One of the affected residents, widow YOLANDA LEGATE, 1211 Nimitz, almost had to evacuate as mud threatened to invade. Broadmoor cops and neighbors erased the immediate danger with sweat and shovels.

Boys at San Bruno navy center, where the young housewife-mother works, helped her cut mounting bills by turning over proceeds from a wrestling show. Isn't enough, though.

Same name, wrong clan. Last week the JOYCE GILBERTSON-LARRY KENNEDY wedding yarn indicated the bridegroom was the son of the man who runs the electric firm here. Joyce's new hubby works there, but isn't related. Good plug for the boss?

Veteran DC police sarge AUGIE BENASSINI, on duty since 1943, is back from a hospital stay for a blood condition. He knows how a pincushion feels. The personable gent required many transfusions during his illness.

Petitions floating around town to get a professional board to review the "firing" of HENRY WEIBEL, elementary school superintendent, include the signature of M. PAULINE BROWN, after whom a new school here has been named.

The gracious lady, now retired, is known just about everywhere for her accomplishments and life-long dedication to education.

To her way of thinking, the superintendent has done much during his eight years at the helm.

The big one really got away from cage coaches MIKE ORLICH (Jeff) and TONY GIAMMONA (Westmoor). Last year when the two high schools shared the same campus on double sessions, TERRY FARIS, six-feet nine-inches and only 17, worked out daily in the Jeff gym. The Sharp Park giant, however, couldn't play. Rheumatic fever ruled against his chances in sports. And this year, young Faris works days and goes to night school.

KIP'S Director Lauds Publicity For Talent Show

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Much of the interest in KIP Workshop has been generated and intensified by complete and generous coverage by THE RECORD. We send our heartfelt thanks, and a special word of appreciation to reporter Roy Hurlbert.

The KIP and PAL Talent Show, publicized by THE RECORD, has resulted in many more inquiries and enrollments.

We extend our thanks to Chief Petrocchi and the Daly City Police Department, and of course to our PAL Officer John Coleman, for whole-hearted assistance and co-operation. Beau-Kays to the army of PALS who went out and sold tickets. Also to Tanforan Florists for use of floral baskets for the stage, which was nicely decorated by Mrs. J. Anderson, of San Mateo, and her family.

Also to Joe Lewkowitz of Daly City, a really fine pal who provided a sound truck, complete with signs, that toured the town, voicing publicity re KIP and PAL.

My personal thanks to the committees of adults who provided transportation and other aid, and of course, my love and appreciation to my beloved KIPSTARS who rehearsed long hours between shows to do their bit to make the KIP and PAL talent show a success.

THE RECORD's coverage of our activities represents a fine community service on behalf of the children of Daly City.

Thank you again.

Most sincerely,

Vets' Administration Official Addresses B'nai Israel Men

The B'nai Israel Men's Club was recently honored by a lecture given by Kurt Goldstrom, an employee of the Veterans' Administration. Goldstrom elaborated on the manufacture of plastic eyes and noses and other prostheses. Highlight of the lecture was the exhibition of artificial eyes and the pictures showing the fitting and processing of patients.

The annual Purim Ball is scheduled for March 1, 8:30 p.m., at the Colombo hall in Daly City. A band and name entertainers will be featured. A buffet supper is also included in the $2.25 per person donation.

Plans for the showing of a film on Israel have been made for the next regular Men's Club meeting.

Elementary Enrollment Boom Here Necessitates 'Yes' At The Polls

By Nelda Nocita
(Citizens Committee for Needed Schools)

Enrollment of 10,807 children in our elementary schools is expected by 1962—only four years away," says Mrs. J. D. White, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Needed Schools, which is supporting the JESD school bond and loan election March 18. "The 1962 enrollment will be twice our 1958 enrollment, at least, according to official conservative estimates. With additional planned home construction, the 1962 enrollment could be even greater than ten thousand."

Nine years ago, JESD had five elementary schools. Five have been added since then; two more are being finished this spring. Eight additional elementary schools are in planning, plus a three-room addition to Olympia school. A seventh-eighth grade school will also be needed and it is expected a search for a site will be on the school board agenda soon.

Time Required

"A minimum of two years is needed to build a school after a site is found, and if delays are encountered by litigation for property, difficulty in securing money, or slow construction, as much as five years can be used in getting a school from conception to occupancy," continued Mrs. White.

With these background facts, Mrs. White presents the problem necessitating the bond and loan election. Our local property tax income is insufficient to finance school construction. Financial aid can be secured from the state only if we remain bonded to our legal limit, set by state law. As our outstanding bonds are redeemed, additional bonds must be authorized and sold to keep us bonded to legal limit. The authorized bonds will be sold only as needed.

In adidtion, the voters must further authorize the district to seek state aid. Such aid will be granted by the State Allocation Board only when deemed necessary by that state agency to meet specific construction needs.

Authorization to borrow up to $7 million dollars from the state and to sell $1,300,000 in local bonds is requested. Our tax for bond redemption and loan repayment is already at its maximum rate as set by state law, and that rate cannot be increased by passage of this measure. (The rate will not be decreased by failure to pass, either.) None of the money to be secured can be used for anything but school construction.

"You can see," says Mrs. White, "that both the bond and loan sections of our March 18 election are essential. Speakers are available to give more details on this subject to any organization or group. We should also be very glad to have those interested in helping with this March 18 election join our citizens committee."

EPISCOPAL MEN WORK OVERTIME TO RUSH CHURCH

With true missionary spirit and zeal, men of St. Martin's Episcopal church are busy weekends hammering insulating board and painting in their new church which is rapidly nearing completion and is located on the corner of Southgate and Bradley drive in Westlake. Members of the Women's Auxiliary served coffee.

Designed in contemporary California style, but retaining such traditional church features as steeple and bell, the new church is being constructed by Doelger Builders, Inc., at cost. The edifice includes an auditorium with seating capacity for about 300 persons, as well as sanctuary, office and kitchen facilities on the main floor and an undercroft containing eight classrooms.

St. Martin's has made rapid advancement since it was established as a mission, and the first services held on July 24, 1955 in the vicarage, 94 Palmdale avenue. Under the able leadership of the vicar, the Reverend Allen J. Downey, the congregation rapidly outgrew available space. In September, 1956, Sunday services were transferred to the Westlake auditorium, 333 Park Plaza drive, where they are presently being held until the new church is completed. Dedication services for the new building are scheduled to be held on Sunday, April 15.

County On Eve Of Giant Easter Seal Campaign

On the eve of the San Mateo County Easter Seal Drive to aid the locally handicapped, which gets underway next week, Peter F. Miller, campaign chairman, pointed out that the bulk of the funds raised in the drive results from voluntary donations mailed in by residents receiving the Easter Seal appeal letter.

"More than 115,000 appeal letters will be sent this year to citizens in our county," Miller said. "These letters contain a sheet of colorful seals, a letter from the society and a convenient return envelope for contributions."

Miller said that the letter will explain what is done for the crippled children and adults in our county with the money given to the drive. He emphasized that every aspect of the fund-raising effort this year will conform with the principles that guide crippled children's societies in all 48 states and the U. S. territories.

Islam Chapter Plans 32nd Annual Reunion

The 32nd annual reunion of members and "oldtimers" of Islam Chapter, Order of De Molay, will be held on Friday evening, February 28, it was announced by Robert Ebert, master councilor of the chapter.

Robert Desky, local attorney, will head a cast who will confer the De Molay Degree on a class of candidates during this program, Joseph Ruggiero, first master councilor of the chapter, is scheduled to take part in the festivities.

TRADITIONAL sendoff salute is accorded Chief Gunner's Mate Joseph Bestresky, Daly City Navy recruiter, as he ended 20 years of military service recently in a ceremony at the SF Federal Office building. State Eliminates Bank Red Tape In Transfer Of 'Deceased' Fund

A new plan that will cut red tape for small depositors, attorneys and California banks in transferring the bank account balances of deceased persons has been announced by State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood.

Kirkwood declared that the plan—jointly developed and adopted by the Controller's Office and the banks—will eliminate many of the annoyances and embarrassments that have characterized such transfers in the past.

Under certain circumstances, the bank balances of decedents may be transferred to the executor, administrator, or to other entitled individuals, without the need of obtaining an individual "consent to transfer" from the State Controller or the County Treasurer.

Upon the request of any bank, the Controller's Office will now issue a blanket consent under which the bank will be authorized to:

1. Make any payments of amounts under $1000 pursuant to Section 630 of the Probate Code;

2. Make any payments not exceeding $1000 from any one account to the decedent's spouse, child or grandchild who is a surviving joint tenant of a joint tenancy account, or the beneficiary of a trustee account;

3. Make payments exceeding $1000 but not exceeding $5000 from any one account to a spouse who is the surviving joint tenant or beneficiary;

4. Make payments, regardless of amount, to the California executor or administrator of the decedant's estate.

Banks which make transfers under 3 and 4, above, will file a notice of such transfer with the Inheritance Tax Division of the State Controller's Office, Kirkwood said.

STUDENTS HELP BOARD TO NAME 4 NEW SCHOOLS

Students and Jefferson Elementary School District trustees have joined forces to pick the names of four new kindergraten through sixth grade schools soon to be built here.

As is common practice, men of historical prominence prevailed in the selections, suggested by students at Colma and Benjamin Franklin intermediate schools.

After weeks of culling the lists, trustees Wednesday night chose Robert Fulton for the proposed Westlake basin school; Thomas Edison for the second two-level Abe Lincoln site school south of Westmoor High; and Daniel Webster and Christopher Columbus for the planned St. Francis Heights subdivision schools.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel and the board also sent letters of commendation to the Colma and Ben Franklin students who participated in the nominations.

Silberstein Returns

Daly City optometrist Dr. Irvin W. Silberstein was one of the more than 600 vision specialists from all parts of the state who attended the 53rd annual Congress of the California Optometric Association from February 19-22 at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles.

Aircraft were used to treat 5,601,548 acres of California farm lands for pest control in 1956.

INADEQUATE Jefferson School Annex on San Pedro road, housing 65 students in two classrooms, soon will be replaced by addition of a new building adjacent to Jefferson School on Alemany street. Trustees have the plans ready and need state funds for the project. The district must sell the annex property. A few homeowners next to Jefferson school will be asked to move to make room for the new facility. THE RECORD photo

EASTER Seal therapists are shown instructing young patients in stair-climbing. This training is one of the many services offered to the county's handicapped by the local Easter Seal Society. Voluntary funds contributed each year by county citizens help support the society's year around aid to crippled youngsters and adults. The 1958 fund drive starts next week.

FULL-SCALE CELEBRATION

Snell PTA's 'Namesake' Heads Founders' Program

Birthday greetings displayed on a huge three-foot square pink card decorated with a birthday cake and candles were presented to the James L. Snell PTA by James L. Snell at their Founder's Day meeting last week at Benjamin Franklin school. Snell, in whose honor this PTA unit was named, is now vice principal and counselor of Encinal High School in Alameda.

Boy Scout Troop 259 presented the flag and led the group in the pledge of allegiance. This troop is sponsored by the Snell PTA and its leader is Scoutmaster Sam Logan. The character thought of the evening was read by Alton Swedburg, who substituted for his wife.

Toes were set tapping when the Daly City municipal band began to play march music and many strains of familiar "pop" music. the music for this occasion was provided through a grant from the recording industries trust funds, which is an extension of a program of public service originated by the recording and transcription fund.

Dr. David Shapiro, assistant superintendent (business) for JESD, spoke briefly on school needs for the future and urged all members to vote in the March 18 bond election. Basketball awards were presented to the 6th grade Benjamin Franklin Falcons (representing the after school recreation program) by Elman Rose.

Explaining the origin of Parent Teachers Association and the meaning of Founders Day was Mrs. Larry Green, past president. She stated at present there are over 100 million members celebrating the 61st birthday of this organization.

Mrs. Fred Smith, president, introduced many honored guests and they were presented with corsages and boutonnieres by Mrs. Larry Phillips. The guests were Supt. H. Z. Weibel, JESD; Mrs. Weibel, Miss Aileen Suber, principal Garden Village school, honorary life member of Snell and honorary vice president; Miss Marjorie Tobias, principal Vista Mar school and honorary vice president of Snell PTA; Fred Sweickhardt, principal Benjamin Franklin school, honary vice president and parliamentarian for Snell PTA; Mrs. Larry Green, past president, honorary life member and member of first executive board; Mrs. Raymond Duste, past president and editor of 17th District CCPT; Tom Jenkins, past president and legislation chairman of 17th District CCPT and member of first executive board; Mrs. John D. Mitchell, past president and honorary life member; Mrs. Forest Cunningham, director of organization 17th District CCPT; Mrs. Douglas Duey, first executive board member; Mrs. Dorothy Manus, first executive board member; Mrs. John Hess, honorary life member; Mrs. Kenneth Brugge, member first executive board; Mrs. Charles Hazen, member first executive board; Manuel Silva, honorary life member; Mrs. James L. Snell, honorary life member of Woodrow Wilson PTA, and James L. Snell and daughter, Miss Snell.

Surprising the chairman of the honorary life memberships committee, Mrs. Leroy Larson, was the climax of the evening when Sweickhardt presented this year's honorary life membership pin to her. Mrs. Larson had been under the impression that the membership was to be presented to another PTA member until Sweickhardt read her list of accomplishments and contributions to her community and school, which include helping to organize "Friends of the Library," active member of Village Cooperative play school for two years, certified librarian, publications chairman for Snell PTA 1955-56, publications and magazines chairman, 1956-57 and historian for 1957-58. She was also responsible for setting up the Snell PTA pamphlet library and information file by securing reading material and publications of benefit to each chairman on the executive board.

Jazzy "Dixie Land Band," played by the Daly City municipal band, concluded the evenings entertainment. Their various selections had been interspersed throughout the evening meeting and a long ovation was given the band. Miss Marjorie Tobias and Miss Aileen Suber poured tea and coffee from silver service at a beautifully decorated table which displayed two huge birthday cakes.

SSF Pair Enjoy Trip To Hawaii They Won Here

The Robert R. Thorpes of 330 Forest View drive, South San Francisco, have enjoyed an exciting week vacation trip in Hawaii as winners of a free door prize drawing held January 28 in celebration of the opening of Systematic Savings and Loan Association in Daly City.

Thorps was one of over 1600 local citizens who entered the Systematic Savings contest by simply filling out a coupon. The drawing was held at the Systematic Savings' office at 7070 Mission street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe began their relaxing vacation February 8 with a flight across the Pacific aboard a luxurious United Air Lines airliner. Upon their arrival at the island of Oahu they were met and received with flower leis, in the typical Aloha greeting. The Thorpes then settled into their home-for-a-week, the delightful Reef Hotel, only two blocks from the beach.

Rec Department Square Dancers Host Stonestown

On Washington's birthday, the Daly City Recreation Department Square Dancers hosted a party for the Stonestown "Y" at the War Memorial Community Center.

Both groups are taught by Peg Allmond and the dancers responded with enthusiasm to Peg's snappy calling. No onlooker could believe they were beginners less than three months ago.

Pete Pederson organized the party arrangements, with John and Mary House in charge of the coffee division, Blackie Garrett handled the ice cream with authority, and the ladies of the Daly City group furnished homemade cakes.

The Stonestown "Y" Square Dancers are making plans to host a return engagement the latter part of March.

Francis Attends Solons' Hearing On 'Court Delays'

State Assemblyman Louis Francis is attending a hearing of the Joint Senate-Assembly Judiciary Subcommittee on Court Delays in Stockton this week.

Francis, a committee member and an attorney, stated that the hearing is the first of a series to be held by the joint legislative committee throughout California to investigate the long periods of time in which judges hold cases under submission after the trials before making decisions.

The California constitution directs all judges to render a decision after a trial within 90 days in order to receive his salary. It also requires each judge to file an affidavit prior to receiving his salary that "no case in his court remains pending and undetermined that has been submitted for decision for a period of 90 days."

"Reports of flagrant violations of this constitution mandate have been made to the committee. There is even evidence of some judges filing false affidavits. In San Joaquin county we have learned that the county auditor does not obtain or require the affidavit prescribed by the constitution before paying judge's salaries," said Francis.

Young teen-age girls will have the opportunity of mastering the art of simple cookery, plus the knack of readying all the refreshments for an easy-to-do party.

Big sister might play the role of hostess for the first time by preparing and serving the edibles and potables for her own little sister and a few of her first or second grade cronies.

Mrs. Filsinger will demonstrate how cooking can be an adventure as well as fun. For instance, Easter is a time when every little girl wants a new hat. The Girl Scouts will be shown how to make one they can actually eat—an Easter hat cake. There will be lots of other fun—things like fancy and frothy milk drinks, spreading easy sandwich mixes, baking black cat cookies, and perhaps a supper for a family celebration.

Troop 208, fifth graders at Sharp Park school, will serve as ushers.

Pack 84 Holds Annual Dad-Son Dinner Affair

Cub Scout Pack 84, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary 824, recently held its ninth annual Father and Son dinner, John Williams, Cubmaster, reported today.

The dinner was held at Garden Village school, as one of the Pack's functions during Boy Scout Week. At this dinner Williams told Cub Scouts and their fathers some of the highlights of Pack history.

Organized in 1949, the pack reached its maximum of 130 boys by 1955. Then, being too large, two other packs were formed in Broadmoor Village, Williams said.

"We held our first Cub Olympics in 1954 at Jefferson High school, and it was very successful," Williams added. "Now it has turned into a yearly event."

The pack has won many blue ribbons at the San Mateo County Scout-O-Ramas, and this year they are being presented with a special plaque for the 1957 show, Williams said.

"Our main source of revenue comes from four bottle drives a year which is helped greatly by the co-operation of King's Market on the bottle turn-in," Williams reported.

Mrs. Hazel Egleton was presented with a corsage as a token of thanks for service as counseling Den Mother.

Entertainment was provided by Richard Orloff, Den 2, who played a piano solo; Ken Phillips, Den 4, accordion solo; John Pesadas, Den 8, trumpet solo; Frank Bennett, webelo, electric guitar solo, and Billy Eagleton, webelo, played a mellophone solo.

Decorations, made by the Cubs, were folded yellow napkins to resemble the Cub Scout neckerchief and note pad favors as place cards for the fathers.

Reverend Herbert Tweedie, Broadmoor Presbyterian church gave the invocation.

Pack 84 will have its next meeting this Thursday at 7:30 p.m., Benjamin Franklin school, Williams said.

New Teacher Trains At Garden Village

Principal Aileen Suber and faculty recently welcomed Mrs. Sally Tambellini to Garden Village school. Mrs. Tambellini is a student at San Francisco State college, where she is completing her last semester of training in elementary education.

At Garden Village, she is under the supervision of Mrs. Melanie Fernekes in her first grade class.

Mrs. Tambellini is a resident of Westlake.

Ram Tales by Ron Bosc

Sharp, cool, what a blast "were a few of the comments from kids who attended "What a Life," presented recently in the Little Theater. Mr. Ardis' group did terrific jobs in presenting the play which took many hard working hours to put together.

The play, composed of a cast of 25 actors and actresses, was a hilarious comedy revolving around one boy, Henry Aldrich, played by Larry Bennett, who always seemed to be in trouble. Other participents were Henry's girl friend, played by Diane Massucco; Avie Katz, who falls in love with Sally Traeger; the principal's secretary, and many others. As in all stories, Henry solved his problems by the end of the play.

Recently, report cards were given out to some happy and miserable looking faces. For some, it was a day for joy and for others, well! On the same night Westmoor's first Junior Prom was held through the efforts put forth by the Junior class. It was a gala affair for all who attended, and for those who didn't, they sure missed an evening of fun and enjoyment.

Student Body elections rolled around again, the results: President, Sid Swanson; Vice President, Marty Knedel; Secretary, Allene Downey; Treasurer, Mike Silberstein; Judge, Rick Sweitzer, and myself re-elected publicity commissioner. These newly elected officers, plus the presidents of clubs, will attend the P.A.L. Conference to be held at Jefferson this year. The purpose is to acquaint officers of the Peninsula high schools with ideas on school activities.

Beta Sigma Phi's Await Convention

Beta Sigma Phi's convention plans for April 18 through 20 at the St. Claire hotel in San Jose were made at their recent meeting in the home of Inez Thomas, 45 Northridge drive.

A record attendance is expected at the yearly Fashion Show this Saturday, gowns to be modeled by John Mouber's, at the Fairmont's Venetian room. Also discussed were plans for a Rummage Sale in May.

Any contributions will be greatly appreciated and can be picked up by calling Mrs. Thomas, PL 5-9544, service chairman.

Ronald L. Anguillo of Daly City was one of the graduates. Coastside students also receiving the degree were Gene P. Shepherd of El Granada and Alma Jean Quinlan of Moss Beach.

SF STATE HOSTS FALSTAFF OPERA

The Falstaff opera "Sir John In Love" is slated for a March 7 opening in the main auditorium at San Francisco State College.

Based on the "Merry Wives of Windsor," Williams has set Shakespeare's play to, as he said, "to not unpleasant music." Acclaimed in England and on the continent, this will be the first West Coast performance of "Sir John In Love."

Wool consumption in New Zealand averages 9.3 lbs. per capita per year, more than twice the American consumption.

JEFF. ELEMENTARY STUDENTS HONOR ABE AND GEORGE

Two patriotic programs, honoring the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington were presented by Jefferson elementary school students during February assemblies.

Presenting colors and leading the pledge to the flag were Bruce Crouse and Bruce Reeves, fourth grade Cubs in uniform. "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner" were sung by assembled students, led by Mrs. M. Ross, sixth grade teacher, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. A. Ferber, fourth grade teacher.

Each class, in both primary and middle grades, contributed numbers to the program, which consisted of short stories, anecdotes, poems and notable dates of historical significance.

GIRL SCOUTS EYE BIRTHDAY FESTIVITIES

Northern California Girl Scouts will begin observance of their 46th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts in America on March 12, a national event.

Their motto this year is: "You Can Count on Her—Can She Count on You?"

One big event that will attract all Girl Scouts in the Bay Area is "Girl Scout Sunday" on March 2 at the cathedral of St. Mary's on Van Ness avenue and O'Farrell in San Francisco.

This is a majestic affair for all Girl Scouts and attracts thousands of members from all the nearby counties.

The Scouts will be neatly dressed in their respective Brownie and Scout uniforms and assemble in front of the cathedral at 1 p.m. to march in the procession into church. American color and troop flag bearers will march up the aisle first. All leaders will accompany their own groups.

CAPUCHINO 'CHAMPS'

Cinch 2nd With Win Over Knights, 55-47

By Roy Hurlbert

Repeating last year's second place finish, Jefferson's varsity cagers conclude a productive campaign this Friday night when they invade the South San Francisco gym for a windup scrap with the Warriors.

The double bill opens with a 7:30 o'clock tipoff. Boss Mike Orlich's Daly City five is a prohibitive favorite.

Capuchino cinched the Peninsula League title Tuesday with a 54-41 win over third place Burlingame. The Mustangs, in line for a Tourney of Champs bid to Berkeley, are 11-0 with one to go.

Knights Scare

The Indians registered an uphill 55-47 decision over Hillsdale last Friday by splurging for 22 points in the final quarter. The Knights left the court at halftime with a 24-17 lead.

Center Dennis Marc and Guard Gary Ryan, dead-sure All-League candidates, will be out to finish one-two in individual loop scoring this Friday. Dennis has a 14.6 per game average with 160 points. Gary has 157 for a 14.3 per tilt clip.

Ryan's 14 points paced the comeback win over Hillsdale. Forwards Ernie Howren, 12 points, and Wayne Lewis, 10, came through handsomely. Barrie Haanen had 8.

Tourney Trip

Orlich's squad, ranked 20th in Northern California, has accepted an invitation to play in a tournament next week at Gridley, California. The Tribe will be one of the top teams entered.

Ino Patron, never-let-up forward for Jeff's 30's, also should be proclaimed the lightweight division's number one scorer after Friday's finale. The all-sport little guy after last week's Hillsdale game had a 12.1 average with 133 points. He's 28 points ahead of his nearest rival.

VAN NEST
. . . appointment

Name Van Nest To State-wide Rec Committee

Appointment of Dee R. Van Nest as a member of the Recruitment Committee of the California Recreation Society was announced today by Ross A. Cunningham, San Leandro, society president.

Van Nest is Director of Parks and Recreation for Daly City.

The California Recreation Society has a membership of 1000 professional recreation leaders from all parts of the state. They are employed by communities, school districts, industry, hospitals, colleges and universities, institutions, the armed forces, and many other agencies, both voluntary and governmental.

Members belong to both a local geographical district and the statewide organization. Local meetings, training sessions, and workshops are held by district organizations. Statewide, a monthly magazine is distributed, and activities guided by a 20-member board of directors. The society is also an affiliate chapter of the American Recreation Society.

INSTALMENT CREDIT

Instalment credit extended to buyers of new and used cars amounted to 16.39 billion dollars during the year ended September 30, 1957, reports the National Automobile Club.

Rams End In League Basement

Westmoor High's first-year varsity basketballers wound up in the Peninsula League basement Tuesday by losing a 68-48 battle with Hillsdale.

Coach Tony Giammona's always-peppy cagers finished with a 1-11 mark. Their lone win was an early season nod over San Mateo, which squared the count last Friday with a 54-43 victory down south.

Forward Gary Twitty, a late-season flash, finished among the better league pointmakers with 12 against the Bearcats and 10 against Hillsdale. His per game average was just over 10 points.

Dave Simons had 12 and Ross Holmgren 9 in the San Mateo return engagement. Against Hillsdale, Holmgren was high with 12. Bill Dougherty managed 10.

Ram lightweight scores were not available, but final rundown on the campaign standings and scoring will be published next week.

'Cas,' Linhares In SF Tourney Finals Saturday

Two Daly City dependables, policeman Art Linhares and roofer Ed Castagnetto, will be among a trimmed-down field of 16 finalists this weekend in the finals of the San Francisco city golf tourney.

Linhares, making his 30th annual bid for the title, came closest in 1953 when he was nipped in a torrid showdown with boy-wonder Ken Venturi. Castagnetto also has been involved in the shindig many times, winning one year, and consistently among the top finishers.

Eliminated last weekend was another local duffer of merit, Bob Silvestri. He, too, boasts a city title.

KEEP CAR CLEAN

Keeping your car clean during this season of the year may be more difficult but it's worth that extra effort, points out the National Automobile Club. Let the car stay too dirty too long and you may have to renovate the finish.

Westmoor Nine In Debut Friday Against Galileo

Westmoor's varsity baseball nine opens its season this Friday afternoon against Galileo High in San Francisco.

Making his debut as Ram varsity coach is Rod Losberger, former all-around athlete at University of California.

The Rams next week meet Serra (Tuesday at Westmoor), Lowell in SF on Wednesday, and Washington of SF here on Friday.

Westmoor launches its maiden year in the Peninsula League on March 21, hosting Hillsdale.

TRIBE, RAM TRACKSTERS OPEN FRIDAY

Daly City's two high school track and field squads open their 1958 campaigns with dual meet exhibitions here this Friday afternoon.

Coach Bob Watt's Jefferson Indians entertain Lincoln of SF, while across town, Coach Ernie Ribera's Westmoor Rams meet the Riordan High Crusaders.

Westmoor next week hosts Galileo on Tuesday and joins Jeff in the Peninsula League relays on Friday, March 7, at San Mateo.

Complete rundown on both schools will be released next week.

HIGHWAY PROGRESS

Since the passage of the 1956 Federal Aid Highway Act, 1,200 miles of the Interstate and Defense Highway System have been completed, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Pakistan came into being as a sovereign, independent State on August 14, 1947.

Whittington, Vicky Alvarez Yo-Yo Champs

Dave Whittington from Ben Franklin and Vicky Alvarez from Community Center have won city yo-yo championships and now advance to the California regionals.

Both posted perfect scores in finals at War Memorial building on February 15. Fifteen youngsters participated in the showdown.

Maureen Jolly from Colma school was second to Miss Alvarez in the girls' 12-and-under class.

Boys' 12-and-under champ was George Ellis of Ben Franklin, trailed by Skipper Smith of Westlake school.

Carol Bruch from Lincoln park scored 75 points to win in the girls' 13-to-16 category.

Whittington captured the boys' 13-to-16 title by outlasting Connie Eames of Crocker and Gary Bearch of Franklin.

Colma Faculty, Student Cagers Play For 'Dimes'

The March of Dimes will benefit this Friday afternoon when Colma intermediate school presents its annual faculty vs. student basketball games in the school auditorium.

The instructors' first game will be against Homeroom 31, eighth grade intramural champ. The faculty five, "The Terror," then will tangle with another eighth grade team.

Colma's eighth grade school team recently divided a pair of same-week games. They defeated a squad from the Brisbane rec department, 27-24, and lost to Millbrae at War Memorial, 26-15.

Tops for Colma against Brisbane were R. Montoya, D. Chase and J. Hodges. For the losers the main guns were J. DeMarco, F. Mazzella and R. Haanen.

Board control meant the difference in the Millbrae contest.
